

Indiana Facts around the Extension of Unemployment Benefits

		Indiana
1	Unemployment Rate (December)	9.9%
2	Total number of unemployed (December)	306,900
3	Jobs Lost (August 2007-December 2009)	200,700
4	Number of workers to job openings (November 2009)	(6:1 Midwest)
5	Emergency Unemployment Compensation Beneficiaries So Far	253,000
6	Benefits Paid to those	$991,000,000
7	Workers who will be denied federal benefits between March and June without congressional action.	38,360
8	Workers who will be denied federal benefits in March without congressional action.	160,279
		National
9	Jobs saved if unemployment and cobra are extended	850,000
1	The published national unemployment rate
2	Published number of total unemployed.
3	Payroll jobs numbes from the peak employment in 2007 to the December 2009 figure
4	The Labor Department publishes regional figures on the number of job openings in the midwest (Nebraska-Ohio), which we compare to the number of unemployed people in the region.
5	This is the number of unique individuals receiving emergency unemployment compensation benefits since the program began in July 2008.
6	This is the emergency unemployment compensation benefits paid to state residents since the program began in July 2008
7	This is NELP's estimate of the number of state residents who would be immediately cut off of jobless benefits in March with no federal extensions if Congress fails to act
8	This is NELP's estimate of the number of state residents who would be cut off of jobless benefits with no federal extensions if Congress fails to act between March and June.
9	This is the Economic Policy Institute's estimate of the number of jobs saved or created if Congress extends the recovery act's jobless safety net provisions through the end of the year.	