Helping integrate other employment and training programs into the WorkOne system is essential to ensure that Indiana’s workforce development system is optimal. This can be done by coordinating the activities and services available at WorkOnes with the other programs and services. By doing so, Indiana can ensure that its workforce development system is well-integrated throughout the state. This will also help Indiana to make the most efficient use of its budget.

The opportunity to work with other programs and services is essential to ensure that Indiana’s workforce development system is as effective as possible. This can be done by coordinating the activities and services available at WorkOnes with the other programs and services. By doing so, Indiana can ensure that its workforce development system is well-integrated throughout the state. This will also help Indiana to make the most efficient use of its budget.
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT IN INDIANA

and participation numbers are not meant to be totaled, as this funding and private sector initiatives are not included. Funding 2003-2004. It is a first step in understanding the complicated investment programs that were in operation in Indiana during 2004 with generous support from the Joyce Foundation. The Institute would like to have been possible without the generous support of the Lumina Foundation and the Joyce Foundation. The Institute would like to have been possible without the generous support of the Lumina Foundation and the Joyce Foundation.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The most recent Pell grant data available are from FY 2003. ADVI is funded by state WIA set-aside dollars. GET is funded from penalties and interest (P&I) on delinquency unemployment tax. The GED graduation rate is calculated based on “on-time” graduation status, which means those who graduated in 120 calendar days or less. The most current data available are for the 2017-18 school year. The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD).

The Institute for Business & Technological Studies (IBTS) is a research institute of Washington University in St. Louis. The Institute for Business & Technological Studies (IBTS) is a research institute of Washington University in St. Louis. The Institute for Business & Technological Studies (IBTS) is a research institute of Washington University in St. Louis. The Institute for Business & Technological Studies (IBTS) is a research institute of Washington University in St. Louis.

The information contained in this report is preliminary and is intended to provide a snapshot of workforce development programs and activities in Indiana. Accurate data on performance measures and services provided within the major employment and training funding sources for transitional employment programs including the Workforce Investment Act (WIA), the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA), and the Workforce Investment Act (WIA) are available from the U.S. Department of Labor Employment and Training Administration (ETA). This report could be broadened to include number selected data elements and information on some training programs. Specific performance measures and training program. Specific performance measures and training program. Specific performance measures and training program. Specific performance measures and training program. Specific performance measures and training program.

The most recent Pell grant data available are from FY 2003. ADVI is funded by state WIA set-aside dollars. GET is funded from penalties and interest (P&I) on delinquency unemployment tax. The GED graduation rate is calculated based on “on-time” graduation status, which means those who graduated in 120 calendar days or less. The most current data available are for the 2017-18 school year. The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD). The Matri-Pathways program is an initiative of the Indiana Department of Workforce Development (IDWD).